Nunnykirk Hall is a Grade I Listed Country House, and essentially comprises on the 'Main House' and 'Service Wing', as shown opposite and by Enclosure 7.2.

As shown by Enclosure 7.2, and the following floor plans (Enclosures 8.1 to 8.8), both the Main House and Service Wing have three floors - Ground Floor, First Floor, and Second Floor. The Main House has a basement.

During the last 46 years, the Main House and Service Wing have been used as an independent residential boarding school, with accommodation provided in the Service Wing, supported by kitchens, bathrooms and toilets. During and prior to this time, the Service Wing has provided separate accommodation in the form of self-contained apartments on each floor.
