Please also find attached the other documents requested.

I confirm that the application is to replace the current gate with a new gate.

Many thanks

Andrew

Dear Sue

Sorry - I am getting confused between a "Site Location Plan" and a "Site Plan" which is also know as a "Block Plan", according to the definitions on the internet.

Hence, please find attached the Site Location Plan that I believe is now scaled correctly?

I am working on the other requirements at present, so hope to send them through by tomorrow.

Many thanks

Andrew

Dear Andrew

Many thanks for your email.

Please clarify why you have sent me this plan as it appears to be identical to the plan you submitted with your original application and to which I have not raised any queries.

I look forward to a response to my letter sent yesterday and the email I sent this morning in order to enable me to register the application.

Best regards

Sue
