Dear Mr. [redacted],

Thank you for your email.

Unfortunately I cannot arrange the drawings as I am not a Licensed Architect and therefore I cannot submit them.

Please submit the drawings to the Council in an electronic format. They must be submitted in a format that can be read electronically.

Regards, Mr. [redacted] (I am not a Licensed Architect and therefore I cannot submit them). Please email me for any further information after the above date and with my telephone number.

Kind regards,

[redacted] (I am not a Licensed Architect)

Submit a planning application on the <http://www.birmingham.gov.uk>

Thank you for your email dated 12th March regarding my information concerning the above application.

I attached an average drawing and proposed alterations to the garage to assist you in the process of the application.

There are no technical drawings to be submitted as I am not a Licensed Architect and therefore I cannot submit them. Please email me for any further information after the above date and with my telephone number.

Kind regards,

[redacted] (I am not a Licensed Architect)
