

Heritage Statement

Whilst the site is partially within a conservation area the proposed manage is of little consequence, given that it is predominantly ground level development. With a simple fence around it.

The fence would be a post and rail type fence, typical of fences in such a location.

It is therefore not considered that is a significant heritage impact on the conversation area, or that any harm is to be caused from the proposal.