Has an agricultural building been constructed on this unit within the last two years?

- Yes
 No

Would the proposed building be used to house livestock, slurry or sewage sludge?

- Yes
 No

Would the ground area covered by the proposed agricultural building exceed 1000 square metres?

- Yes
 No

Please note: If the ground area covered exceeds 1000 square metres it will not qualify as Permitted Development and an application for Planning Permission will be required.

Has any building, works, pond, plant/machinery, or fishtank been erected within 90 metres of the proposed development within the last two years?

- Yes
 No

The Site

What is the total area of the entire agricultural unit? (1 hectare = 10,000 square metres)

200.0

Scale

Hectares

What is the area of the parcel of land where the development is to be located?

1 or more

Hectares

Years

100

Months

0

Is the proposed development reasonably necessary for the purposes of agriculture?

- Yes
 No

If yes, please explain why

The proposed agricultural building will provide this farm with much needed storage capacity for cereals like wheat and barley that are grown on this farm. At present they do not have sufficient capacity and have to sell some cereals at harvest which results in them having to sell at a lower cost and this impacts on the farms profitability and financial security. The building will be designed and built to meet the crop assurance requirements for storing cereals on this farm.

The building will also be used to store general agricultural commodities and farm machinery most of which is stored outside at present and suffers damage due to the inclement weather and this also impacts on the farm's profitability.

Is the proposed development designed for the purposes of agriculture?

- Yes
 No

If yes, please explain why

The dimensions of the proposed agricultural storage building are such that it will provide sufficient storage capacity for the cereals that they need to store and it will also be accessible to modern farm machinery that is used to fill and empty such a storage building, will create a safe working environment for the applicant and his staff.

Does the proposed development involve any alteration to a dwelling?

- Yes
 No
