

Design and Access Statement

This is the replacement of a front door with a traditional oak ledged and braced front door which is appropriate to the property.

It will be made and installed by a heritage joiner.

The design has already been discussed in advance with the East Herts Conservation Officer.

27 May 2023