The Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) Order 2015 refers to permitted development rights for a range of development not requiring planning permission. I have considered the content of your enquiry and conclude that planning permission is required for the proposed raising of stonework and roof windows. The enlargement of a house consisting of an addition or alteration to its roof is not permitted development when the house is located within a conservation area.

The soil pipe will require planning permission if it will be located on a wall which fronts a highway or forms either the principal elevation or a side elevation of the house.

The repositioning of the bathroom and new doors/windows to property do not require planning permission.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

(a) a member of staff

(b) an elected member

(c) related to a member of staff

(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

Yes

No

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.
