Description of Existing Use, Building Works or Activity

Please fully describe each existing use, building works or activity for which you want the lawful development certificate. Where appropriate, show to which part of the land each use, building works or activity relates

The land to which this application pertains is recorded with the LPA as agricultural land; however, for at least the last 19 years it has been used exclusively for the keeping of horses, with the agricultural function having been replaced with grazing paddocks. Furthermore, a number of timber stable structures/storage sheds have been erected between 2004 and 2015.

Grounds for application for a Lawful Development Certificate
Under what grounds is the certificate being sought
 ☑ The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application ☐ The use, building works or activity in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application ☐ The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years ☑ The building works (for instance, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than four years before the date of this application. ☐ The use as a single dwelling house began more than four years before the date of this application ☐ Other - please specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).
Is the certificate being sought for a use, operation, or activity in breach of a condition or limitation?
○Yes
⊙ No
Please state why a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted
The use of the land for private equestrian purposes began at least 19 years ago (and can be evidenced using Google earth imagery). The structures on the land which are exclusively associated with that use were all constructed between 8 and 19 years ago (and can be evidenced using Google earth imagery). The access track to the immediate north of Vine cottage provides exclusive access to the land that is subject to this application, not serving any other property or land. Its use is therefore contingent with the use of the fields which it serves, and therefore is also subject to a certificate of lawfulness.

Details of the pre-application advice received
As a consequence of a planning application that was submitted which included works to the existing access track and stable structures, the applicant was advised that the land to which the application pertained was not recorded as having equestrian use, the recorded use being agricultural. Likewise, the stable structures which have been erected on the land do not appear to have been granted planning consent. The applicant was unaware of this, having only purchased the property last year. Ms Lockwood advised that the most appropriate course of action, given the length of time that the use had been in effect for and that the structures have existed for, that a Certificate of Lawful Use would be the most appropriate route in the first instance, with any proposed alterations to the land/structures then forming a subsequent application (as opposed to seeking to confirm the lawful use through a full planning application which could muddy the waters).

with respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff (b) an elected member

(d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
