Case Officer's summary below:

Having considered the content of your enquiry, I can summarise that the principle of the development as currently proposed could, on balance, be considered acceptable due to the minor additional increase to the existing dwelling. A reduction in scale and massing could ensure this as well as taking into account the suggested design changes. The proposed scheme could be in accordance with the development plan providing the above advice is taken into consideration

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
