

Heritage Assessment:

Please Note; No works are being carried out to any part of the original Listed dwelling.

East Forde Farm is a grade II thatched, and cob walled dwelling built in the late 1800's early 1900's.

The studio that is separate (and away from the original dwelling) was originally converted in 2011 and has a concrete tiled roof and rendered walls.