Hi Sandra

The address is St Peter's Church.
The churches website stated it was located at the rectory and as there was an address for the church on the planning portal I assumed it was the rectory.
I give you permission to change the application.
My apologies for the confusion.

Kind regards

Dear James

Please could you confirm the address of your recent tree application, it is linked on the map (see below) to the address stated as, 'The Rectory', and the trees shown on your site location are in the grounds of St. Peter's Church. I require your permission to change the location.

Many thanks
