Do any of the above statements apply?
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
Authority Employee/Member With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following: (a) a member of staff (b) an elected member (c) related to a member of staff (d) related to an elected member
The principle of residential development on this site is not supported by the Development Plan and the NPPF. The site is outside the defined settlement boundary and therefore located within the countryside. The proposal is not considered to constitute sustainable development.
