Hi Francesca. That's fine. Is there an indication on time as I know the customer is keen to get them down as worried about them going into winter with high winds etc.

Many Thanks.

Good morning [REDACTED]

Apologies that I missed your call earlier this morning.

Are you happy for me to request our business support team create a new application under our standard process? I only require written confirmation of this and then we can do all the background work with the information you have previously submitted.

Many thanks
