The principle of erecting a dwelling within the garden could be acceptable subject to consideration of the matters raised above. St Mildred's Avenue comprises a number of fairly unique properties with no predominant uniform style of development. The Council would look to support a dwelling in this location to infill the gap within the street....

Amendments have been made to the design and are included within the planning submission drawings to present a dwelling that sits comfortably within the street scene.

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- No
