

The proposal will also not even be visible from public viewpoints except briefly when passing the gate into the driveway. There is a substantial hedge and wall along the back of the carriageway footpath which screens the building from the road. As seen on the photograph, this virtually hides the property from view. The gable end which is just visible is that of the garage and the eastern end of the southern wing.

David Barnes
25th October 2023