NOTES

1. This permission does not incorporate Listed Building Consent unless specifically stated.
2. This Decision Notice consists of 2 pages.
3. The Condition Numbers referred to are planning code numbers.
4. Your attention is drawn to the Disability Discrimination Act 1995. The Act makes it unlawful for service providers (those providing goods, facilities or services to the public), landlords and other persons to discriminate against disabled people in certain circumstances. Since December 1996, it has been unlawful for service providers to treat disabled people less favourably for a reason related to their disability. From October 1999, service providers have to make "reasonable adjustments" for disabled people, such as providing extra help or making changes to the way they provide services. It is intended that from 2004, service providers will also have to make "reasonable adjustments" to the physical features of their premises to overcome physical barriers to access.

You should be satisfied that an action claiming discrimination under the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 could be defended should works be carried out in accordance with this permission.
