Type of Application

This application is to ascertain which one of the following would be lawful: *

- An existing use of buildings or land.
- An existing operation of development.
- Any other matter constituting a failure to comply with any condition or limitation subject to which planning permission has been granted.

Description of Existing Use of Buildings or Other Land and/or Existing Operations

Description of Existing Use, Buildings or Operations

Describe the existing uses, building works or operations for which you want a certificate of lawfulness: * (Max 500 characters)

The application site comprises a single dwelling house and garden in single family use. The siting of a caravan/mobile home for incidental/ancillary use within the curtilage of the dwellinghouse does not comprise a material change of use of the land or buildings and the simple siting of the caravan does not involve operational development.

Existing Use Class

If a certificate of lawfulness is sought for either an existing use or an existing use in breach of a condition, please state the Use Class as described in the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) (Scotland) Order 1997 the use relates to: *

Class 9 Houses

Is there more than one use of activity/operation? *

Yes  No

Grounds for Application for Certificate of Lawfulness

Please state the grounds under which the certificate is sought: *
(Note: at least one option must be selected)

- The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application and has operated continuously.
- The use, building works, or operations in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application.
- The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years.
- The operations (for instances, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than 4 years before the date of the application.
- The use as a single dwelling house began more than 4 years before the date of this application.
- Other – specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

If Other, please explain: * (Max 500 characters)

The siting of a mobile home/caravan within the garden is an ancillary residential use. It is ancillary/incidental to the occupation of the dwelling, uses the dwellings' services, utilities and address. There is no division of the plot and it is occupied only by the elderly mother of the applicant. There is a clear functional link between house and caravan and the planning unit will remain as one. There is no new planning unit and no material change of use requiring planning permission.

Are there any existing planning permission, Certificates of Lawfulness, enforcement notices or breach of condition notices affecting the application site? ≤ Yes  No

Information in Support of a Certificate of Lawfulness

When did the use or activity begin, and/or when were the building works or operations substantially Completed? *

What information or documentation are you providing with your application to support this date? *

A plan

Evidence to substantiate your grounds of application

Other supporting information

Please describe in further detail, the supporting information that you are providing: * (Max 500 characters)

In the case of an existing use or activity, including an existing use or activity in breach of conditions, has there been any interruption or material change to the continuous use? * ≤ Yes  No

Does the application for a Certificate relate to a residential use where the number of residential units has Changed? ≤ Yes  No

Please explain why you consider a Certificate of Lawfulness should be granted: * (Max 500 characters)

Please see accompanying statement of evidence and plans. The siting of a caravan within the garden is an ancillary residential use which may be carried out without planning permission. There is a functional link and immediate familial relationship (mother and daughter). There is no independent residential use and no material change of use involved. The caravan is mobile and so there is no operational development involved that would require planning permission.
