| I have compared the measurements I took against the planning consent and it appears that the ground floor rear extension is within the scope of the planning approval. I cannot quite recall if the rooflight was in at the time of my site inspection, but I can see that a small rooflight was proposed on the approved plans. If a larger rooflight has been installed/is due to be installed, please bear in mind that this will be a deviation from the approved plans and I would suggest you submit a variation to regularise the development. |
