

1223 - Telecommunications statement

The new dwelling is to be equipped with a high-speed in-building physical infrastructure, up to a termination point for high-speed electronic communications network to comply with Part R of the building regulations.

END