20 December 2023

Dear Mr Marsh,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (As Amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure)(England) Order 2015

Site: 12 ROLLESBY WAY, THAMESMEAD, LONDON, SE28 8LR
Applicant: Mr & Mrs Yevgen Pashkovskyy
Proposal: Construction of a first floor on main dwellinghouse, the addition of a single story side extension and replacement of all windows with associated external alterations

I acknowledge receipt of your application in respect of the above which was received as valid on 14 December 2023. I may have changed your description of the proposal to make it more clear, but if you are not satisfied please let me know.

I have until 08 February 2024 to deal with your application. If you have not been notified of any decision by then you can appeal to the Secretary of State for the Environment under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended). You should appeal within six months and you must use a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate at Chartroom, The Planning Inspectorate, Eagle Wing, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN. This does not apply if your application has already been referred to the Secretary of State for the Environment.

What we do with your information

We use the information provided to us to make decisions about the use of land in the public interest. Some information provided to us we are obliged under the regulations to make available on planning registers. This is a permanent record of our planning decisions that form part of the planning history of a site.

How we share your information

We will make details of planning applications available online so that people can contribute their comments. We will sometimes need to share the information we have with other parts of the council - for example to establish how long a building has been used.

Yours Faithfully
Polly Vance
