To whom it may concern,

This is to verify that I have spent many many days in the Roughwood garden - My children have played there since the first day that Hefts moved in. Over the years they have camped in "the field", had barbecues and camp fires there, played on the Hampdine in "the field" and ridden their bikes around the paths that [REDACTED] mowed in the field. They've used it to play volleyball, football - you name it!

As adults, we have had several wonderful parties in "the field" ranging from 16ths, through to 21sts and a large annual August bank holiday gathering. Yours [REDACTED]
