

BIODIVERSITY REPORT

Several visual surveys have taken place at the development site and there is no evidence of any bats, birds, nests etc. within the existing barn outbuilding. The building is in good condition as can be seen on the photographs below.

It is unlikely that the development will have an impact on any protected species or have any significant damaging impacts on the nature conservation value and wildlife interests of the local area.

