

Benningham Grange Barn

The applicant wishes to create a modest single storey pool building for their own use along with an attached garden room sat between the existing barn and an existing cart lodge range.

The materials used match those of the existing barn

There is no change in use, and the proposed building is single storey.

There is no change in access or parking

The site remains a single family dwelling