Details of the pre-application advice received
Advice received below was for a 2 storey front extension. This application now differs from the advice received.
Conclusion: The principle of development is broadly acceptable and providing the proposals adhere to all the relevant policies as outlined above, the submission of a formal application could be likely to be supported.
Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following: (a) a member of staff (b) an elected member (c) related to a member of staff (d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
Do any of the above statements apply?
