Dear Sir/Madam,

TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990 (as amended)
Application for Planning Permission (Householder alteration/extension)

Reference No.:	23/AP/3507
Proposal:	Removal of external ground floor toilet block and shed for the construction of a ground floor rear wraparound extension, the raising of the roof ridge by 170mm, the erection of a dormer window to the rear slope of the roof and the insertion of two rooflights in the front slope of the roof.
Site Address:	25 Rye Road, London, Southwark

Your application is now valid and has been started from 3rd January 2024. The description of your development given in the title block above may be different from the one on your application form. Contact us if you would like the description to be amended.

I am the officer allocated to your application and you can contact me on . Please quote the planning reference number 23/AP/3507 when contacting me. The progress of your application can also be tracked using Southwark Council's online planning register, accessible from the following link: www.southwark.gov.uk/planningregister.

I may request additional information and/or revisions before deciding whether the application should be recommended for permission or refusal.

Planning law requires your application be determined in accordance with the development plan unless material considerations indicate otherwise. The development plan is accessible from the following link:

<https://www.southwark.gov.uk/planning-and-building-control/planning-policy-and-transport-policy> .

All relevant parties are now being consulted regarding your application and the council aims to issue a decision by 27th February 2024. However, if your application has not been determined by 27th February 2024, you have the right to appeal to the Secretary of State, either:

online at <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/planning-inspectorate> , or;
by post to Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN.

An appeal in this situation assumes the refusal of the application, even if it had intended to be granted. It is therefore, recommended that you consult your case officer before taking such action.

If you wish to appeal, use the Planning Inspectorate's online appeals service. To find out more, follow the link below. The Planning Inspectorate will publish your appeal details on its website, including the documents you submitted as part of your planning application, along with your completed appeal form and any other information required. Ensure any personal information provided belongs to you and that its publication is not an issue. If you provide information belonging to someone else make sure you have their permission. Further information about data protection and privacy matters is available on the Planning Inspectorate's website.

Please also find the Receipt appended to this letter.

Southwark Council are currently trialling a new application service for Lawful Development Certificate applications as part of the Government funded Reducing Invalid Planning Applications project. If you would like to submit your next Lawful Development Certificate application using this service, or would like further details about how the service works, please contact your Case Officer or the digital planning team at digital.projects@southwark.gov.uk.

Yours faithfully,

Susherrie Suki
