

GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE STATEMENT

The proposal seeks to incorporate green infrastructure into the development by using renewable energy where possible. The proposed development will be in keeping with the areas local distinctiveness whilst improving the buildings energy efficiency. Below is how the application relates to the 10 pillars for Cornwall's Green Infrastructure Plan:

Nature recovery, regeneration and reintroductions

The proposal will take into account any recommendation regarding nature recovery, regeneration and reintroduction.

Marine health

The proposal will not cause any negative impact to Marine health.

Natural climate solutions

The proposal will not effect the current natural climate.

Access to nature and active travel

The proposal will not effect the existing access to nature and active travel.

Clean air

The proposal will not cause any negative impact to the existing quality of the air.

Clean Water

The proposal will not cause any negative impact to the existing quality of the water.

Waste and Resources

The proposal will use the existing household waste collection services provided by Cornwall Council.

Sustainable food

The proposal will take into account any recommendation regarding sustainable food.

Economic and social wellbeing

The proposal will not cause any negative impact to the existing economic and social wellbeing of the area.

Governance, leadership and community

The proposal will take into account any recommendation regarding governance, leadership and community.