Please note: Most applications are not reported to Planning Committee for decision but are determined by planning officers. However, if you wish to address the Planning Committee before a decision is made (even if this takes longer), please notify me in writing within 21 days of the date of this letter.

If by 7th March 2024 you have not been notified that your application is invalid and we have not sent you a decision you may appeal to the Secretary of State under Section 78(1) and 78(2) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 by notice sent within 6 months (2 months for advertisements) from that date (unless the application has already been referred to the Secretary of State by this Authority). Appeals must be made on forms provided by the Planning Inspectorate, Registration Section, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Telephone 0117 3728810). You find more detailed information on the Planning Inspectorate website at <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/planning-inspectorate>.
