

L-R: Birch, Cherry, Oak – Cherry is currently as tall as the oak and needs reduction. Oak and Silver Birch will be unaffected.

Cherry secondary trunk, on the right hand side, to be removed.

Bay tree is taller than the yew tree and needs reduction.

Bay has multiple trunks. Again the right hand side trunks are likely to be removed to reduce risk to the integrity of the dry stone wall.