

Noise impact assessment

This application involves standardized development works. There will be a small amount of construction noise during the construction phase of this project. There is no proposed noise emitting plant or equipment. During the demolition works, the property will be horded and scaffolding to cover dust. All works to be carried out during Building Control designated hours.