[THIS IS AN EXTERNAL EMAIL]

Hi Kylie,

Apologies for my slow response. Yes T2 on our application is an Acacia as is T1. As you say there only appears to be 1 x Acacia which has a TPO so assume this relates to our T1. I therefore guess that T2 will fall under the Conservation area? Are you able to transfer this? Appreciating that T2 on our TCA application for the same site is for a Cherry tree and not the Acacia as detailed as T2 on our TPO application.

Kind regards

James Gadd

Good morning,

I am currently validating the above tree application.

Looking at our records T2 does not appear to be a protected tree or it is a different species. As shown below the protected trees in G1 are 4 Sycamore, 1 Yew and 1 Horse Chestnut. Please can you confirm?
