

14th January 2024

Re: 234897FUL

Further to our planning application I am able to confirm that there will be no additional parking requirements. The aim of the expansion is to provide further office space and make better use of the property.

It is not envisaged that the increase in space will mean an increase in staff, just better facilities and resources for both the staff and the patients.

Tom Norris
Agent