Roads, pavements and highways enquiries

We provide a 24/7 phone service for highway emergencies within Surrey. Please call us on 0300 200 1003 to report an emergency.

Please note, we no longer accept certain enquiries by email where appropriate online self-service options exist, unless you are unable to access our website.

All non-urgent first time highways reports or enquiries must be reported online:

<https://www.surreycc.gov.uk/roads-and-transport/roadworks-and-maintenance/report-a-highway-problem>

This will allow us to focus our resources on vulnerable residents and complex enquiries that cannot be made online. Highway reports and enquiries made online on the Surrey County Council website go directly to our highway teams and result in a quicker response.

We are always seeking to improve our online services to make them as quick and easy to use as possible. If you couldn't find an appropriate self-service option or have any other feedback please let us know.

Social Care enquiries - All Social Care enquires must be made directly to the Service.
