

Re: Planning Application Ref 24/00129/TW
29 January 2024 15:58:08

---

Go back to the original pollard points to maintain height and some general thinning will be needed to reduce the tree's cross section to prevailing winds to maintain the stability of the sloping bank. However this will be done with care, as in the past, to maintain the health of the trees.