Hi Mia

Yes its 19. It looks like the Ordnance Survey annotation is incorrect. I will let them know.

Many thanks

Hi Guys

App number 2024/0201 shows up as number 1 within uniform – but the attached map from the agent shows it as number 19. Any ideas?

Many thanks

Good Morning,

Apologies for being picky, but to save confusion with the general public can you re-name the location plan to number 19, it is currently stating number 1.

Kind Regards

Hello Mia

Apologies - more haste less speed! Here is the location plan with the red line too!

Best regards

Good Morning

I am afraid the location plan provided is not suitable due to the boundary line not being outlined in red to show the site location. Please outline any other land owned in blue. This is stated within the invalid letter sent to you. Please amend accordingly.

Kind Regards
