

Heritage statement

The replacement front door will be in keeping with the requirements of a conservation area and of a style sympathetic to a 1900's built house whilst providing modern standards of insulation and security. The door will alleviate a current damp issue thus avoiding more extensive repairs to the front elevation of the property