

Design Access statement

The replacement front door will be in keeping with other doors in the street and comparable in colour and style to the existing front door. It will be in keeping with other doors in this conservation area

The door meets all the required standards of security and insulation