The application description is 'Use of the land for siting a mobile home for use ancillary to the main dwelling and the proposed mobile home meets the definition of a caravan as set out in the Caravan Sites Act 1968, and as amended in October 2006 (CSA).'  Temporary

Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

Stationing of a mobile home within the residential curtilage of a dwelling house, for purposes ancillary to the main use of the host dwelling house, does not constitute development nor result in a material change of use within the meaning of Section 55 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) and therefore does not require planning permission. Please see Planning Statement and Construction Method Statement for for more details.

Site Visit

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
