Office use only	Date received:	DM officer:
	DM number:

We aim to respond to your enquiry within 30 working days. The more information and detail you are able to provide, the more comprehensive and detailed a response we will be able to offer.

The pre-application advice service provides the informal opinion of an officer. If you require on-going discussions and a bespoke service then we recommend a Planning Performance Agreement is entered into. More information about this service can be found at:

<https://www.cornwall.gov.uk/ppa>

Please note that the advice given to a pre-application enquiry relates to the merits of the proposal and planning material considerations only, it does not constitute confirmation as to whether planning permission or other planning consents are required or not required. Should you wish to determine this before submitting a pre-application enquiry please submit a Do I Need Enquiry.

4 Brief Description of proposed development
This pre-application advice request is for the possible rearrangement of the front gates at Glendurgan. This entrance a private entrance for residents of Glendurgan house not for visitors to the National Trust Garden. The current entrance is narrow and provides severely limited visibility for vehicles exiting the drive onto Helford Passage. The proposed approach is to relocate the gateway a short distance back from the highway to increase sightlines. The existing historic fabric (the gate, gateposts and stonework) would be retained and relocated to the new position, the Cornish hedgebank would also need to be relocated.

Do you have any specific questions you would like answered?

Please can we be informed of the date of the Historic Environment officer and/or Highways site visit so that we can meet with them.

Please note

Any advice given by Council officers for pre-application enquiries does not indicate any formal decision by the Council as local planning authority. Any views or opinions expressed are given in good faith, and to the best of ability, without prejudice to the formal consideration of any planning application following statutory public consultation, the issues raised and evaluation of all available information.

You should therefore be aware that officers cannot give guarantees about the final formal decision that will be made on your planning or related applications. However, the advice note issued will be considered by the Council as a material consideration in the determination of the future planning related application(s), subject to the proviso that circumstances and information may change or come to light that could alter the position. It should be noted that the weight given to pre-application advice notes will decline over time.

Who will control my data?

The Data Controller for all the information you provide on this form is Cornwall Council, New County Hall, Treyew Road, Truro TR1 3AY. Data Protection Registration Number: Z1745294

There's something I don't understand

If you need help in understanding or completing this form, please contact the Planning & Sustainable Development Service by emailing planning@cornwall.gov.uk or on telephone number 0300 1234 151.

How we will use the information about you

The information you provide on this form will be used to provide you with a response on the service you have requested. The information may be made available on the public register (unless a decision has been made to restrict publication due to e.g. commercial confidentiality). For discretionary services e.g. pre-application advice, this will include your name and address as well as the details of the agent if applicable. Your personal email address, signatures, contact numbers and any financial information will be redacted from public viewing but we will hold this information on our planning system and it will be available to all planning officers. Any medical information submitted which is not from an official medical professional will be rejected and deleted. It is unlawful for us to process medical information without a legitimate reason to do so.

Your information will also be used when contacting you with a response.

Who else will we share your information with?

We will only use this information in conjunction with your submission. Your information (excluding personal contact numbers, email address and signatures) may be shared with both external consultees e.g. Parish Councils; Environment Agency and national amenity societies and internal consultees e.g. Highways; Forestry Officers; Land Agent; Affordable Housing.

How will we look after your data?

Information Security

Your data will be held within Cornwall Council's secure network and premises and will not be processed outside of the UK/the EEA. Access to your information will only be made to authorised members of staff who are required to process it for the purposes outlined in this privacy notice. Please note that anyone who has access to the internet can view non confidential planning submissions online, even if they have not registered.

Accuracy of your information

We will process the information given at the time of your submission. If your information is not accurate then you can call us on 0300 1234151. If you have applied via an external planning provider, you will need to contact them directly in order to amend your data.

How long will we keep this information for?

All discretionary planning service requests are held on a public register until required to be removed in accordance with our current document retention policy or if requested to do so by you in accordance with your data rights.

Privacy Notice - For Discretionary Services

What are my data rights?

Your personal information belongs to you and you have the right to:

- be informed of how we will process it
- request a copy of what we hold about you and in commonly used electronic format if you wish (if you provided this to us electronically for automated processing, we will return it in the same way)
- have it amended if it's incorrect or incomplete
- have it deleted (where we do not have a legal requirement to retain it)
- withdraw your consent if you no longer wish us to process
- restrict how we process it
- object to us using it for marketing or research purposes
- object to us using it in relation to a legal task or in the exercise of an official authority
- request that a person reviews an automated decision where it has had an adverse effect on you

How do I exercise these rights?

If you would like to access any of the information we hold about you or have concerns regarding the way we have processed your information, please contact:
