

Daylight or sunlight assessment

We have been led to believe and a formal daylight or sunlight assessment is not required due to position of the garden room which replaces an existing summer house and the location relative to other buildings is unchanged. Please do let us know if this is not the case.