An initial feesibility document was submitted for informal feedback.
Broadly speaking the feedback was positive, with the use broadly supported.
The main area's of consideration highlighted related to design and character, amenity standards, impact on neighbours, biodiversity / Ecology and highways impact.
The site contributes to a prominent corner and the existing building does little at this landmark position and that the site can accommodate an extended larger building.
Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following: a) a member of staff b) an elected member c) related to a member of staff d) related to an elected member
u) related to all elected member t is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
Do any of the above statements apply?
