Is the proposed development reasonably necessary for the purposes of agriculture?

If yes, please explain why

The market garden at Bore Place is part of the wider agricultural enterprise on the estate. It covers an area of up to 2.7 hectares. It produces and sells vegetables to a wide range of outlets, including a farmers' market, Infinity food shop & bakery, and local box schemes. Much of the food produced is consumed on site, and is used by the kitchens at Bore Place. No food goes beyond 30-40 miles, so it is all locally consumed. The market garden relies on sales of vegetables for as long a period as possible so it needs as long a growing season as is available. Currently it is mainly April to October. Growing some of the more delicate crops inside the polytunnel will extend the season when such vegetables can be produced and sold. Improvements in the market garden area have already been made recently, for instance in the packing area, propagating area, cold storage and in the irrigation system.

Is the proposed development designed for the purposes of agriculture?

- Yes
 No

If yes, please explain why

The polytunnel will protect the vegetables inside from the ravages of the weather. It will provide warmth and protection from wind and rain, and will improve crop health. This will increase both the quantity and quality of the vegetables produced. It will also improve the working environment for staff. Two full time staff are already employed during the growing season, plus part time staff when needed. The polytunnel will both make their employment more secure, and enhance future employment possibilities.

Does the proposed development involve any alteration to a dwelling?

- Yes

If Yes, please provide details

The polytunnel is to be approximately 110m from the grade 2 listed Bore Place.
