Reasons for comment:

Comments: Do not feel this building should have been allowed in the first place but it was Historically attempts have been made to add an additional property here and has always been refused as this is classed as farmland . This view has always been fully supported by PCC.
I believe the way this property was disingenuously built and its usage since its completion as an AIR B&B was [planned from the outset and was never to be used as to the purpose of its application.
Officers have been hoodwinked and I urge that this application be refused - Otherwise what is the point of planning?

Kind regards
