Type of Application

This application is to ascertain which one of the following would be lawful: *

- An existing use of buildings or land.
- An existing operation of development.
- Any other matter constituting a failure to comply with any condition or limitation subject to which planning permission has been granted.

Description of Existing Use of Buildings or Other Land and/or Existing Operations

Description of Existing Use, Buildings or Operations

Describe the existing uses, building works or operations for which you want a certificate of lawfulness: * (Max 500 characters)

This application is made for the issue of a Certificate of Lawfulness confirming its existing use as short-term letting accommodation.

Existing Use Class

If a certificate of lawfulness is sought for either an existing use or an existing use in breach of a condition, please state the Use Class as described in the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) (Scotland) Order 1997 the use relates to: *

Not in a Use Class

Is there more than one use of activity/operation? *

Yes  No

Grounds for Application for Certificate of Lawfulness

Please state the grounds under which the certificate is sought: *
(Note: at least one option must be selected)

- The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application and has operated continuously.
- The use, building works, or operations in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application.
- The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years.
- The operations (for instances, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than 4 years before the date of the application.
- The use as a single dwelling house began more than 4 years before the date of this application.
- Other – specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

Are there any existing planning permission, Certificates of Lawfulness, enforcement notices or breach of condition notices affecting the application site?  Yes  No

Information in Support of a Certificate of Lawfulness

When did the use or activity begin, and/or when were the building works or operations substantially Completed? *

What information or documentation are you providing with your application to support this date? *

- A plan
- Evidence to substantiate your grounds of application
- Other supporting information

Please describe in further detail, the supporting information that you are providing: * (Max 500 characters)

1. Floorplan 2. Copies of transactions confirming usage as a Short-Term Let for visitor accommodations. 3. Supporting Statement that demonstrates why it is not considered material change of use

In the case of an existing use or activity, including an existing use or activity in breach of conditions, has there  Yes  No
Been any interruption or material change to the continuous use? *

Does the application for a Certificate relate to a residential use where the number of residential units has  Yes  No
Changed?

Please explain why you consider a Certificate of Lawfulness should be granted: * (Max 500 characters)

The change here is not deemed to be material when compared with permanent residential use and it should also be noted that against the Scottish government's "Short term lets: planning guidance for hosts and operators" as to what constitutes material changes, the property, its location and usage has no detrimental effect to either public interest or to those who live in the vicinity that would fall into those parameters. These considerations are set out in the attached supporting statement.
