Appeals to the Secretary of State

- If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to grant subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990. You must do so within 28 days of the date of this notice on a form which you can get from the Secretary of State at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN (Tel: 0303 444 0000) or online at <https://www.gov.uk/appeal-planning-decision>.
- The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal but will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.
- The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to the Secretary of State that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
