Details of the pre-application advice received
Case officer had on site meeting with owner and planning consultant (Dan Hewett at Wilson Wraight LLP), suggesting a Certificate of Lawfulness application or full planning permission to be sought to formalise the existing domestic use. Concluding permission would be unlikely to be refused if an application came forward. Or alternatively, a Certificate of Lawfulness application should provide 10 years continuous use with information/evidence to back this up.
Interest in the Land
Please state the applicant's interest in the land

Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:  (a) a member of staff  (b) an elected member  (c) related to a member of staff  (d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
Do any of the above statements apply?
