---------

Year

1960
------

(Date must be pre-application submission)

Please provide a brief description of the building or part of the building you are proposing to demolish

<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- The boot room to be demolished is a glazed extension attached to the kitchen, it appears to be contemporary with timber single glazing and top hung casement windows. The roof is plain tile with the same profile as the existing roof of the house</li><li>- The skylight is a white upvc window on a brick plinth,</li><li>- The wall to be rectified is facing brickwork painted white.</li></ul>

Why is it necessary to demolish or extend (as applicable) all or part of the building(s) and or structure(s)?

The extension is in very poor condition and repair. The skylight is does not allow for proper breathability and ventilation of the cellar causing high levels of damp and moisture build up. The gable wall is currently of low structural integrity and needs to be rectified.

Biodiversity net gain

Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.

However, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application.

I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.

However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- Yes
- No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 & Regulation 6 - Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Regulations 1990

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.
