Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.

I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.

However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Details of the pre-application advice received

Requested advise on what application is required for conversion of garage into office. Property is Grade 2 listed.
Advice received: Mr Cannon consulted with Listed building team, they could not see any issue with the conversion as the garage was built in 1980 and outside of the main curtilage of the main building.
If the garage is free standing and post dates 1 July 1948 it will not be curtilage listed and would not require listed building consent to alter it.

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
