4a. Eligibility - The current building and site

Was the current building constructed between 1 July 1948 and 28 October 2018?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Have additional storeys already been added to the original building (as it stood on 1 July 1948, or as built after that date; or, if 'Crown land', as it stood on 7 June 2006, or as built after that date)?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Was the current use of the building as dwellinghouses only granted by virtue of permitted development rights under Schedule 1, Part 3, Class G, M, MA, N, O, P, PA or Q of the Town and Country Planning (General Permitted Development) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Is any part of the land or site on which the building is located:

- in a conservation area;
- in an area of outstanding natural beauty;
- in an area specified by the Secretary of State for the purposes of enhancement and protection of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside;
- in the Broads;
- in a National Park;
- in a World Heritage Site; or
- in a site of special scientific interest;

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4b. Eligibility - The proposed development

Will the proposed additional storeys only be constructed on the principal part of the building (i.e. the main part of the building excluding any front, side or rear extension of a lower height, whether this forms part of the original building or a subsequent addition)?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would the floor to ceiling height, measured internally, of any proposed additional storey exceed:

- 3 metres; or

- the floor to ceiling height, measured internally, of any existing storey of the principal part of the existing building

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Would the proposed extended building's:

- height exceed 18m (as measured from ground level to the highest part of the roof); or

- roof be:

- more than 3.5 metres higher than the highest part of the existing roof, where the existing building consists of one storey above ground level; or

- more than 7 metres higher than the highest part of the existing roof, where the existing building consists of more than one storey above ground level.

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

If the dwellinghouse is not detached, would the proposed extension result in the highest part of the roof exceeding 3.5 metres above either:

- the highest part of the roof of the building it is joined to (e.g. by party wall or adjoining main wall); or

- if in a terrace, the highest part of the roof of any building in the row it is situated

Yes No / The dwellinghouse is detached

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the roof pitch of the principal part of the proposed extended dwellinghouse be the same as the roof pitch of the existing dwellinghouse?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the development include a window in any wall or roof slope forming a side elevation of the building?

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Will the materials used in any exterior work be of a similar appearance to those used in the construction of the exterior of the existing dwellinghouse?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Following the development, will the dwellinghouse be used within Use Class C3 and for no other purpose, unless that purpose is ancillary to the primary use as a dwellinghouse?

Yes No

If you have answered No above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

4c. Eligibility - Related operations and works

Will any proposed engineering operations reasonably necessary to construct the additional storeys include:

- provision of visible support structures on or attached to the exterior of the building upon completion of the development; or

- anything other than works within the existing curtilage of the building to strengthen existing walls and foundations

Yes No

If you have answered Yes above, the proposal will exceed the limits set by legislation. In this circumstance, you should not continue with this application and seek advice from the Local Planning Authority on the best course of action.

Please describe the proposed development, including:

- details of any works proposed;

- the external appearance of the dwellinghouse, including the design and architectural features of the principal elevation (and any side elevation that fronts a highway)

The Development 41B Buxton Avenue is located to the rear of 41 Buxton Avenue approximately +30m. The Dwelling house is a tandem development. Therefore, can not be seen from the Street scene of Buxton Avenue.

The upward extension will be similar to the style and material of the existing bungalow and surrounding houses.

What is the current height of the dwellinghouse:
(measured externally from ground level to the highest part of the roof)

What will be the height of the dwellinghouse once the additional storeys are added:
(measured externally from ground level to the highest part of the roof)

metres

Please provide details of the impacts on the amenity of any adjoining premises including overlooking, privacy and the loss of light and how these will be mitigated:

Please refer to drawing 2404(08)003 to show the separation and any right of light consideration.
The proposed roof pitch have also been reduced from the existing pitch to reduced massing.
We have also considered the privacy of the rear garden of Belper Avenue, therefore bathroom and ensuite are placed as a buffer and reinforces and mitigate any overlooking to the North West Elevation and location.

Please provide details of any air traffic and defence asset impacts and how these will be mitigated:
