Description of Proposed Works
Please describe the proposed works
Replace current single skin brick utility with double skin dining room and remove wall to make kitchen diner. The current utility fibreglass roof will be replaced with new fibreglass, including a lantern window and insulated. A new utility is to be built to the side of new dining area with a door through to workshop which will replace current concrete garage. This again will all be double skin and fully insulated. All cavity walls will be insulated with 100mm PIR board. Floors with 100mm PIR board. Roof with 120mm PIR board between rafters. All roof tiles and bricks will match existing on property. This is a single story extension which is increasing the footprint by approximately 23m2, and doesn't encroach or look out of place with surrounding neighbours. This will change the access to the rear garden from between the utility and garage. To a pathway that runs alongside the new utility/ workshop, allowing access to guttering all the way around.

owever, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application.
✓ I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.
Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.
However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a nouseholder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Authority Employee/Member
With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following: (a) a member of staff (b) an elected member (c) related to a member of staff (d) related to an elected member
It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
Do any of the above statements apply? ○ Yes ⊙ No

Biodiversity net gain

Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.
