Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

Under the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 1987 (England) (As amended), C3b is defined as 'not more than six residents living together as a single household where care is provided for residents.' This falls within the same use class C3, as C3a, 'a single person or by people to be regarded as forming a single household.' As such, no change of use would take place requiring Planning Permission.

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
